Update on the Instructor Manual (CORE Certification: A Guide to the Curriculum for Instructors)

CORE Certification: A Guide to the Curriculum for Instructors

The new edition of CORE Certification: A Guide to the Curriculum for Instructors will be available in the coming weeks.

We will be using the eBook platform VitalSource for this second edition of the CORE Instructor Manual. Each current CORE instructor will be sent a code to gain access to the Instructor Manual. This will be an exciting innovation for our materials.

If you wish to purchase physical copies of the CORE Instructor Manual, please contact our administration team once we announce orders are open.
